PROXIBID UNIFIED USER AGREEMENT

Please read this Unified User Agreement (“Agreement”) carefully, as the Agreement constitutes a legally binding contract between you and Proxibid. This Agreement contains the terms and conditions that will govern your use of our platform, which includes our website (Proxibid.com), services, and any of our integrated product offerings. By creating a Buyer's or Seller's account, you're acknowledging that you have read, understand, agree to, and accept this Agreement. It is your responsibility to carefully read this Agreement before using our platform. If you do not wish to be bound by this Agreement, you may not use the services offered on our platform.

1. Definitions

The following terms are defined for use in this Unified User Agreement, and their meaning in this Agreement is limited to the given definition.

"APN" means Auction Payment Network, LLC, a subsidiary of Proxibid, Inc.

"ATG Pay" means the payment services Proxibid provides to Sellers and Buyers to coordinate and facilitate a Buyer's purchase of Property from the Company in connection with an Event.

"Buyer" means an individual or entity that creates a Buyer account on the Proxibid website (regardless of such User's purpose for creating the Buyer account and whether such Buyer account is ever utilized to place a bid).

"Claim" means a challenge to a payment that a User files directly with Proxibid.

"Customer Experience" means Proxibid's customer support department who can be contacted via the channels on the Contact Us page.

"Default Event Terms" means the set of default terms and conditions set forth under Section 5 of this Agreement, which governs the relationship between a Buyer and Seller unless otherwise stated in Seller's Special Terms of Sale.

"Information" means any confidential and/or personally identifiable information or other information related to an Account or User, including but not limited to the following: name, email address, billing/shipping address, phone number, and financial information.

"Proxibid," "we," "us," and "our" means Proxibid, Inc.

"Proxibid Platform" means all our products and services and any other features, technologies, and/or functionalities offered by us on our website, by telephone (including support services), or through any other means.

"Seller" means the independent entity conducting or sponsoring the event, including, but not limited to auction houses auctioneers, or auction companies.

"Special Terms of Sale" means a Seller's Terms of Sale and any Special Terms which modify and/or supplement the Default Event Terms set forth under Section 5.

"You," "your," and "User" means the individual or entity using the Proxibid website, whether as a Buyer, Seller, or otherwise.

2. Overview of Proxibid's Services

Proxibid provides online event services in a variety of capacities. For auction-style events, Buyers who cannot be physically present at an event site have an opportunity to participate in the live event through real-time webcast online bidding (live bidding). Buyers who are unable to personally monitor the live event webcast can participate in the event by entering an absentee bid (pre-bidding).

Proxibid also provides timed online event services.

All events are operated by independent Sellers. Sellers are solely responsible for running each event and regulating each sale. While this Agreement contains a set of default terms governing the relationship between a Buyer and Seller, each Seller has the discretion to alter those terms for their event and may impose Special Terms of Sale for participation. (See Default Event Terms under Section 5 below).

Sellers have the ultimate discretion over approving or rejecting Buyers for each event. Creating an account as a Buyer with Proxibid does not automatically guarantee that a Buyer will be approved for any of the events hosted by Proxibid.

Many Sellers have their websites and their Special Terms of Sale which modify and/or supplement the Default Event Terms set forth under Section 5 below and may or may not contain the same level of protection as the terms of this Agreement. Before participating in an event, a Buyer must review and accept the Special Terms of Sale governing the event, if any. A Seller shall not make any material changes to the Special Terms of Sale governing an open event unless the Seller has provided written notice to all Buyers participating in the event. Any participating Buyer who does not receive such notice shall have the right to retract the Buyer's bid.

Because the internet occasionally experiences disruptions, Proxibid cannot guarantee the Proxibid Services will be available 100 percent of the time. Although Proxibid strives to provide the most reliable services possible, interruptions and delays in service are unavoidable and Proxibid disclaims any liability for damages resulting from such disruptions. Thus, you use this website at your own risk.

Proxibid reserves the right to not conduct business with any individual Seller or Buyer or groups of Sellers or Buyers at any time for any reason, and to cancel any scheduled event at any time and for any reason. Proxibid may terminate or deny access to this website at any time at our sole and absolute discretion. Proxibid will not be liable for any direct, indirect, or consequential damages that result from such actions.

3. Buyer Obligations

3.1. Payment to Seller. Placing a bid in an auction-style event is a legally binding obligation. If you are the successful Buyer, you agree to pay the amount of your bid plus all applicable taxes and charges in the time and manner designated by the Seller. Failure to make such payment shall be deemed a breach of this Agreement. Buyers may not re-list or attempt to sell (on Proxibid or any other site) any item awarded on Proxibid before the Seller receives payment in full. Buyers and Sellers shall be solely responsible for collecting and remitting all applicable sales and other taxes resulting from any transactions through the Proxibid Platform, and shall indemnify Proxibid for losses related to failure to do so.

3.2. Payment to Proxibid. The parties acknowledge and agree that Proxibid is paid a percentage, to be solely determined by Proxibid based on the event, of any successful bid/purchase utilizing the Proxibid Services ("Proxibid Premium"), and the Seller incorporates such Proxibid Premium into the total purchase price due from the successful Buyer. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that its payment of the Proxibid Premium to Proxibid is in consideration for Buyer's use of the Proxibid Services to become the successful buyer and such payment obligation is not contingent upon the consummation of the sale transaction between Buyer and Seller. Accordingly, notwithstanding and without limiting Buyer's payment obligation to Seller outlined in Section 3.1 above or Section 5 below (a Seller's Special Terms), in the event for any reason the transaction between the Buyer and the Seller is not consummated or the Buyer otherwise does not make payment of the total purchase price owed to Seller for the successful bid/purchase offer, within fifteen (15) days of the date of the bid/purchase offer, the successful Buyer agrees to pay the Proxibid Premium directly to Proxibid. Any default in payment will be subject to interest and collection fees as set forth under Section 27 below.

3.3. Absentee Bids. Buyers who are unable to personally monitor the event can participate in the event through the pre-bidding process. Under the bidding process in an auction-style event, a Buyer may not remove an absentee bid (pre bid) without the approval of the Seller or Proxibid, which may be granted or denied in each of their sole discretion. Proxibid retains the right to take any adverse action, including without limitation termination of a Buyer's account, against Buyers who are deemed to be abusing bid-retractions. Buyers expressly acknowledge and agree that Proxibid makes no guarantee or representation regarding the effectiveness or success of pre-bids. By placing a pre-bid, a Buyer expressly authorizes Proxibid to begin bidding and continue bidding on Buyer's behalf at any price more than the opening bid (determined by the Seller in its discretion) up to the amount of the maximum pre-bid. Buyer expressly acknowledges that Proxibid owes no duty to Buyer to obtain the lowest possible price on behalf of the Buyer and Buyer may be able to enter a successful bid at a lower price if Buyer were to actively participate in the event.

3.4. Disclosure of Maximum Pre-bids to Seller. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that a Seller may have access to and knowledge of Buyer's maximum pre-bid and may determine the starting bid based in whole or in part on the amount of the Buyer's maximum pre-bid; as long as the Buyer will be provided notice that such access to maximum pre-bids has been enabled by the Seller before Buyer's submission of the maximum pre-bid.

3.5. Due Diligence. Proxibid is not responsible for any errors or omissions in titles, descriptions, images, or videos of items provided on this website or in Proxibid's bidding application. Buyers are solely responsible for verifying the condition and description of any items when considering placing bids or making purchases on this website. Buyers also expressly agree to comply with all applicable laws or regulations when engaging in and concluding transactions on Proxibid.

3.6. User ID and Password. Buyer agrees to keep Buyer's user identification and password confidential, and Buyer is solely responsible for any activity generated utilizing its account with Proxibid. Buyer represents and guarantees that all information supplied by Buyer to Proxibid is accurate. Buyer may not use any alias or other means to mask their identity.

3.7. Financial Obligations. The Buyer and Seller agree that any payments, refunds and/or deposits for the items purchased are the sole responsibility of such parties, and that Proxibid is not directly or indirectly involved in or responsible for such payments, refunds, or deposits.

3.8. Payments. Proxibid provides Buyers the ability to pay Sellers through: (i) Proxibid invoicing; and (ii) Credit and Debit Card Payments. If you utilize a credit or debit card to make payment for any fees you owe, Proxibid or its agent may request preauthorization for a card transaction for validation purposes and/or to ensure there are sufficient funds available in your account. You acknowledge and agree that all payments shall be subject to ATG Pay Terms and Conditions for Buyers, and you agree to the terms by accepting this Agreement or by using the payment services. Please see the ATG Pay Terms & Conditions for Buyers that describe payments options and obligations in more detail here: <https://discover.proxibid.com/buyerpaymentsterms>. Proxibid may require you to separately register for the ATG Pay services.

4. Seller Obligations

4.1. Seller Requirements and Approval. Sellers must be approved by Proxibid, in its sole discretion, before they can use Proxibid's website. Sellers must be licensed, bonded (if required by the state where Seller is located) and have a federal tax identification number. When deciding whether to approve a Seller, Proxibid will also consider (1) Seller's outcry auction experience; (2) any professional designation which Seller may have; and (3) Seller's association memberships (state, national, or both).

4.2. Fees and Taxes.

(a) Fee Schedule - Auction Events. Seller agrees to pay Proxibid the fees and expenses for each event for which Seller engages Proxibid to provide Proxibid Services (each an "Auction Event") as outlined in Proxibid's then-current rate card (which has been provided to Seller and Seller acknowledges receipt thereof) ("Rate Card") or as otherwise outlined in this Agreement or otherwise agreed upon in writing between Seller and Proxibid, and any taxes related to the Auction Event. Buyers and Sellers shall be solely responsible for collecting and remitting all applicable sales and other taxes resulting from any transactions through the Proxibid Platform, and shall indemnify Proxibid for losses related to failure to do so.

(b) Fees for Additional Services. In the event Proxibid provides additional services according to a separate statement of work, purchase order, or otherwise agreed upon in writing between the Seller and Proxibid ("Additional Services"), Seller shall pay the fees and expenses associated with such Additional Services agreed upon between Seller and Proxibid. Seller acknowledges and agrees such Additional Services shall be considered Proxibid Services subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(c) Due Date. Unless alternate payment arrangements have been agreed to in writing by Proxibid, payment in full is due to Proxibid no later than fifteen (15) days after the date of Proxibid's invoice ("Due Date"). Any request for alternative payment arrangements must be submitted by Seller to Proxibid within ten (10) days following the Auction Event. Any amount due to Proxibid which is not paid by Seller by the Due Date shall be subject to interest and collection costs as outlined in Section 27 below.

(d) Credit or Debit Card Payment Authorization. If Seller has provided to Proxibid a designated credit or debit card for payment to Proxibid hereunder, Seller hereby represents and warrants to Proxibid that Seller is the authorized owner of such credit or debit card account and hereby authorizes and directs Proxibid to make recurring charges to such credit or debit card in payment of all amounts due to Proxibid under this Section 4.2, and, if necessary, initiate adjustments for any transactions credited or debited in error. This authority shall remain in effect for so long as Seller maintains an account with Proxibid or until Proxibid is earlier notified by Seller in writing to cancel such authorization in such time and manner as to afford Proxibid a reasonable opportunity to act upon it. Seller agrees to notify Proxibid fifteen (15) days before Seller's next Auction Event of any changes made to Seller's designated account, including but not limited to closed status, bank ownership changes, account changes, and changes in the expiration date of the card. If any charge authorized hereunder is rejected by Seller's credit card company or bank for any reason (including without limitation insufficient funds or a closed account), Seller agrees to pay Proxibid before the Due Date the amount of the declined charge plus, at Proxibid's discretion, an additional fee up to fifty dollars ($50).

(e) Reactivation or Recapture Fee. In the event Seller's account is disabled by Proxibid upon Seller's nonpayment or another breach of this Agreement, and Proxibid agrees in its discretion to reactivate Seller's account, then Seller may be required to pay Proxibid a reactivation (as determined by Proxibid in its sole discretion).

(f) Non-Refundable. Seller acknowledges that all fees paid to Proxibid are non-refundable, and that under no circumstances will Seller be entitled to a return of any fees paid to Proxibid.

4.3. Auction Events.

(a) Selling Options. Sellers can list an item in two ways: (1) through a fixed price event, or (2) through an auction-style event.

(b) Cancellation. If any Auction Event is canceled by the Seller during the seventy-two (72) hour period immediately preceding the scheduled start of the Auction Event, Seller will be charged an amount equal to the standard event fee or per lot fee (as applicable) for such type of Auction Event as outlined in Proxibid's then-current Rate Card. If any Auction Event is canceled by the Seller before such seventy-two (72) hour period, Proxibid may in its discretion charge Seller an amount equal to the standard event fee or per lot fee (as applicable) for such type of Auction Event as outlined in Proxibid's then-current Rate Card. Once a Timed Auction Event has started, Seller may not cancel, add, or remove any lots or modify the end time of the Auction Event unless Seller has obtained Proxibid's prior written approval (which may be withheld in Proxibid's sole discretion and may require an additional fee paid by Seller).

(c) Catalog. Seller must submit to Proxibid substantially all of the content for the catalog not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the scheduled Auction Event. If Seller fails to do so, Proxibid may in its discretion cancel the Auction Event and charge Seller an amount equal to the standard event fee or per lot fee (as applicable) for such type of Auction Event as outlined in Proxibid's then-current Rate Card. Supplemental auction content may be submitted up to one (1) hour before the scheduled Auction Event.

(d) Passed Lot Fee. If Seller conducts bidding for any lot within an Auction Event without allowing Buyers the opportunity to bid using the Proxibid Services ("Passed Lot"), Proxibid may in its sole discretion charge Seller a fee per Passed Lot.

(e) Listing Policies and Prohibited Items. Items offered on the site may need to meet certain listing requirements or in some cases, are considered prohibited and cannot be listed. When listing items, Seller expressly agrees to follow and comply with all requirements, including but not limited to, those referenced under Seller Obligations and Proxibid's Marketplace Guidelines.

No item may be listed for sale if its sale would violate applicable federal, state, or local laws or regulations. All listings and sales must comply with applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, which may impose requirements over and above those policies enumerated in this document.

Items subject to the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) under United States Munitions List (USML) Categories I, II, III & V may not be listed for sale. This prohibition extends to all firearms using caseless ammunition, machine guns, precision-guided firearms, silencers (suppressors, mufflers), machine gun conversion kits, magazines holding more than 50 rounds of ammunition, grenade launchers, military flamethrowers, linked ammunition, and other defense articles as listed in Categories I through III. Only firearms, parts, and ammunition regulated by the U.S. Export Administration Regulations are permitted, provided the Seller complies with applicable law regarding sales and transfers and meets Proxibid's listing policies.

Sellers may not offer to ship firearms internationally or offer to export firearms to customers.

Imitation and toy firearms (including airsoft guns) manufactured on or after May 5, 1989, may be listed for sale only if (a) marked with a permanently affixed, blaze orange muzzle plug or tip, (b) constructed of entirely transparent materials, or (c) colored entirely in white or a bright color or a combination of those shades. Sales of non-firing collector replica antique firearms, BB guns, pellet guns, air guns, paintball guns, or other guns that expel projectiles through the force of compressed air or gas, or via mechanical spring action, are excluded from these limits on imitation and toy firearms.

Any products subject to the ITAR under USML Category V (including explosives, energetic materials, propellants, and incendiary agents), and explosives in general, as regulated under the Organized Crime Control Act of 1970 and the Safe Explosives Act of 2002, may not be listed for sale. This prohibition does not apply to the following items exempt from regulation under the ITAR and 27 C.F.R. § 555.141(a)(4) and (b): small arms ammunition (other than caseless), small arms ammunition components (including smokeless powder), and black powder in quantities of 50 pounds or less. Sellers are encouraged to review their ability to meet shipping restrictions and carrier requirements before listing ammunition or black and smokeless powders for sale.

(f) Catalytic converters and test pipes may not be listed for sale.

4.4. Marketing and Accuracy of Materials.

(a) Generally. Proxibid is not responsible for any errors or omissions in titles, descriptions, images, or videos provided to us for use on this website. Also, Proxibid is not liable for any damages resulting from the photographs it takes or information that is collected at the event location. Seller guarantees that the information provided to Proxibid by Seller (or any agent of Seller) is accurate. Seller is responsible for the content and accuracy of any listing, catalog, or other promotional materials of any kind created for or by Seller in conjunction with any event. Seller shall not knowingly misrepresent any items.

(b) Description. All catalog descriptions must accurately describe items for sale and include original images. The use of stock images is strictly prohibited.

(c) Independent Appraisal or Authentication. If Seller posts the appraised value or any statement of authenticity of a product, such appraisal or authentication must be performed by an independent third-party appraiser or authenticator. Seller shall not operate as the appraiser or authenticator of any products posted by Seller for sale through the website. Proxibid reserves the right to request supporting documentation for any appraisal or authentication published by Seller and Seller agrees to promptly provide such supporting documentation.

(d) Fair Market Value. If Seller lists the value of a product, the stated value must be the fair market value of the product as determined in good faith using reasonable valuation methods. Proxibid reserves the right to request supporting documentation for such valuation and Seller agrees to promptly provide such supporting documentation. Proxibid may also in its discretion require a Seller to change or delete a posted value or remove the listed product from the website.

(e) Enforcement. Proxibid does not evaluate the quality of the items auctioned/sold or verify the claims made by Seller regarding your auctioned/sold items. However, Proxibid reserves the right, at its sole and absolute discretion to (1) prohibit Seller from promoting and/or selling certain items; (2) replace any image or content on this website; (3) require a Seller to update or remove any items from this website; and/or (4) act in accordance with our Proxibid Actions on Accounts policy for violations of Prohibited Uses of Website and Prohibited Actions policies.

(f) Marketing. Proxibid may, at its sole and absolute discretion, market or advertise any of Seller's items or events, and use any content Seller provides to Proxibid for marketing and advertising.

(g) Charitable Campaigns. Seller acknowledges and agrees that charitable fundraising and solicitation is subject to federal, state, and local laws and regulations. If Seller lists any item for sale with a representation that the purchase of goods listed will benefit a charitable organization or purpose (a "Charitable Campaign"), the Seller must:

- a. be soliciting donations on behalf of a charitable organization which is tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is recognized as a public charity by the Internal Revenue Service ("Charity"),
- b. have in place a written agreement with the Charity authorizing the Seller to conduct the fundraising campaign,
- c. provide a copy of such written agreement or a written consent on a Charity's letterhead and signed by an authorized officer of the Charity, to the Proxibid Risk team in advance of the event being posted and;
- d. state the dollar amount or percent per unit of goods purchased that will benefit the Charity in the Description and Terms of the event.

Seller acknowledges that there may be additional legal requirements applicable to the Charitable Campaign (including without limitation disclosures, registration, and bonding requirements) and Seller expressly represents that Seller complies and will continue to comply with all such legal requirements.

4.5. Seller acknowledges and agrees that Seller is licensed under all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations to conduct the activity described herein, including but not limited to acting as a Seller or Auctioneer, and holding a Federal Firearms License and ITAR Brokering Registration (if applicable). When using this website, Seller must obey all applicable federal, state, and local laws. Any use of this website that violates any applicable laws will be grounds for discontinuing your rights to this website.

This website was created and will be operated from the United States.

4.6. Competitors. If Seller engages another online event service provider during any period when Seller is utilizing the Proxibid Services, (a) Proxibid may in its discretion increase the fees owed by Seller in connection with Seller's Auction Events above the standard rates outlined in Proxibid's Rate Card, and (b) to the extent the Rate Card imposes any maximum on the amount of Auction Event fees a Seller may be required to pay in a given period (sometimes referred to as an "Event Fee Cap"), Proxibid may determine in its discretion that such Event Fee Cap shall not apply to such Seller.

4.7. Reconciliation. Seller must reconcile its event and invoice successful Buyers within twenty-four (24) hours of the end of each event. For any adjustments or corrections to the initial reconciliation, please contact reconcile.manager@proxibid.com.

4.8. Recognition of Proxibid. For every event a Seller conducts utilizing Proxibid, Seller agrees to reference online bidding Powered by Proxibid in a prominent position on Seller's site, as well as to include Seller's custom Proxibid URL in all marketing materials related to events on Proxibid, as appropriate.

4.9. Compliance with Laws Related to Sale of Certain Products. Seller acknowledges and agrees that the promotion, advertising, sale, and distribution of certain products are subject to varied laws and regulations based on jurisdiction or geographic location.

Each Seller expressly represents that Seller is presently in full compliance with and shall continue to comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, statutes, ordinances, and regulations relating to the licensing, distribution, and sale of any products Seller promotes or sells through Proxibid ("Regulations").

Each Seller offering firearms, firearms parts, ammunition, or accessories, or imitation firearms, for sale expressly acknowledges and agrees that the sale, transfer, and shipping of those items shall be conducted in compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, statutes, ordinances, and regulations applicable to the Seller and the Buyer, including any applicable requirements for Seller or Buyer licensing, transfer approvals, and brokering and export approval. This means, for instance, that Sellers must comply with minimum age requirements, interstate transfer processes (e.g., shipping handguns only to FFLs), and special destination requirements (such as "assault weapon" prohibitions).

Any Seller who lists firearms for sale expressly acknowledges and agrees to provide proof to Proxibid that Seller holds a current FFL, or proof that a third-party FFL will complete the transfer of the listed firearms in compliance with applicable federal, state, and local requirements. Sellers who provide Proxibid with acceptable proof of holding an FFL shall not be required to re-certify compliance with this Section 4.9 until they undergo a change in FFL status (such as issuance of a renewed or amended FFL).

Sellers are reminded that Proxibid listing policies prohibit offering international shipments for firearms, even where and when those exports might be legally permissible under the U.S. Export Administration Regulations.

Seller further acknowledges and agrees the role of Proxibid with respect to the sale of products is limited to providing a conduit through which a prospective purchaser can purchase items or participate in events without physically being present; Proxibid does not review or evaluate the products auctioned or sold or verify the claims made by Seller regarding the products.

Seller hereby agrees that the Seller shall at all times defend, indemnify and hold harmless Proxibid, its shareholders, officers, directors, employees, successors and assigns, from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, awards, penalties, fines, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees), causes of action, suits, claims, demands, and judgments of any nature or kind, arising under or resulting from: (1) the use, sale, or distribution of any products in violation of any Regulations; (2) Seller's use of Proxibid in connection with the sale of any products subject to any Regulations; and (3) Seller's alleged or actual violation or breach of any Regulations.

Seller shall not engage in activities that require Proxibid to be registered as a broker under the Arms Export Control Act of 1976. If Seller's activities invite any enforcement inquiry involving Proxibid on the question of brokering defense articles or defense services, Seller shall at all times defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Proxibid from and against any and all losses, penalties, fines, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees), causes of action, suits, claims, demands, and judgments of any nature or kind.

4.10. PCI Compliance. The Payment Card Industry ("PCI") Compliance Standard is a set of requirements designed to ensure that all companies that process, store, or transmit credit card information maintain a secure environment. All events on Proxibid that require access to the full credit card number for invoicing require the Seller to view this information through the Auction Payment Network (auctionpaymentnetwork.com) client application. No Winning Buyer Report will be available. This downloadable application is the only method of accessing credit card information for payment processing for Proxibid-run events. These changes are required to ensure we provide all Sellers with a safe and secure payment system that is PCI Compliant.

5. Default Event Terms

Unless and except as expressly set forth in any Special Terms of Sale, Buyers and Sellers agree to the following Default Event Terms:

5.1. Seller agrees that all goods and property sold "AS IS" (attempting to disclaim implied warranties) shall include a clear and conspicuous description of any known defect(s) of the product (for example: "broken," "missing parts," "for parts only").

5.2. Buyers are encouraged to bid or make an offer to purchase an item only after they are completely satisfied as to origin, authenticity, and condition. Questions regarding any item being sold should be directed to the event staff at least 48 hours prior to the event.

5.3. For auction-style events, the Seller is allowing the Buyer to participate in the event through Internet pre-bidding and live bidding. The Buyer acknowledges and understands that such services may or may not function correctly the day of the event. Under no circumstances shall the Buyer have any kind of claim against the Seller or anyone else if the Internet service fails to work correctly before or during the live event. The Seller will not be responsible for any missed bids from any source. Buyers, who desire to increase the chance that their bid is acknowledged during a live event, should use the pre-bidding feature.

5.4. For an auction-style event, if the Seller determines that any opening bid is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, the Seller may reject that opening bid and withdraw the article from sale; and, if having acknowledged an opening bid, the Seller decides that any advance thereafter is not of sufficient amount, the Seller may reject the advance.

5.5. Due to the complexity of modern electronics and digital photography, it is often impossible to get an exact and consistent reproduction of color. Therefore, the only flawless manner to assess the color saturation and detail of any graphic is by personally viewing the subject. The Seller will not be responsible for any variation between the catalog image and the actual piece.

5.6. The Seller may postpone or cancel the event, withdraw any property from the event, or change any terms of the event or conditions of sale prior to the event.

5.7. All announcements made on the day of the event supersede all printed material.

5.8. Certain items in the sale are being offered subject to a reserve, which is the confidential minimum price below which such lot will not be sold.

5.9. Items may be offered with a minimum bid, in which case, the Seller agrees to sell the item to the Buyer who bids at or above the minimum bid price.

5.10. The Buyer's premium is set by the Seller and will be added to the high bid to determine the total purchase price paid by the Buyer.

5.11. If Escrow Services are not utilized, once a Buyer has won the bid, ownership of the item immediately passes to the Buyer who thereupon (a) assumes full risk and responsibility, therefore, and (b) shall pay the full purchase price therefore or such part as Seller may require. The item(s) becomes the full and sole responsibility of the Buyer at this point, and the Buyer assumes all risk of loss and damage. The record of sale, kept by the auctioneer and clerk, will be taken as absolute and final in all disputes.

5.12. If Escrow Services are selected by the Seller, the Seller shall be responsible for payment of the Escrow Fee. If the Buyer and Seller do not opt for a period whereby the goods are inspected before the release of the escrowed funds, the escrowed funds shall be released to the Seller's account once the escrow account is fully funded.

5.13. Delivery of the purchased items is the responsibility of the Buyer unless shipping is offered by the Seller.

5.14. Items sold must be picked up or shipping arranged within a reasonable amount of time or the Buyer may be subject to removal and storage fees.

5.15. The value of an item purchased at the event is unrelated to the cost of shipping/ packing. A Buyer who is a reseller of items should take this into consideration and be aware of shipping charges before bidding.

5.16. Buyer must submit payment to Seller for all purchased items within thirty (30) days following receipt of an invoice. Such payment is subject to the terms of the invoice.

5.17. If, within a reasonable amount of time, Buyer gives notice in writing to Seller that the lot so sold is a counterfeit and after such notice, the Buyer returns the lot to Seller in the same condition as when sold and establishes to the satisfaction of Seller that the returned lot is, in fact, a counterfeit, Seller as agent for the Consignor will rescind the sale and refund the purchase price.

5.18. These Default Event Terms shall constitute a legally binding contract between Buyer and Seller, which contract shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the state in which the Seller is located, without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles of such state. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between these Default Event Terms and any Special Terms of Sale, the Special Terms of Sale shall prevail and govern.

Each Seller acknowledges and agrees that Proxibid makes no guarantee or representation concerning the enforceability or merit of these Default Event Terms and that these Default Event Terms may not be enforceable or otherwise suitable for use in each state and for each Seller and event. Sellers are strongly encouraged to engage an attorney licensed in Seller's state to represent Seller and modify the Default Event Terms for Seller's needs and specific state law.

User acknowledges and agrees that Proxibid has no responsibility or obligation to police or enforce compliance by Buyers or Sellers with the Default Event Terms or Special Terms of Sale.

6. Disputes Between Buyers and Sellers

6.1. Seller's Return Policy and Privacy Policy. Every Seller must have a published return policy and a published privacy policy in the Seller's Special Terms of Sale, even if that policy is that returns are not permitted.

6.2. Seller's Liability. Seller is responsible for all reversals, chargebacks, claims, fees, fines, penalties, and other liability incurred by Proxibid, a User, or a third-party caused by or arising out of Seller's breach of this Agreement, the Default Event Terms, or any Special Terms of Sale, and/or Seller's use of the Proxibid Services. Seller agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Proxibid, other Users, or a third-party for any and all such liability.

6.3. Disputes Between Users. In the event of a dispute between you and another User that does not involve escrow services, you agree to use good faith efforts to resolve the dispute, including contacting the other User by reasonable means and allowing the other User a reasonable time to respond.

Open a Dispute - If you are a Seller, you must open a dispute case within ten (10) business days from the date of the event for the item(s) at the subject of the dispute. The Buyer is notified of a dispute via an email from Proxibid, stating that the Seller has a dispute with the transaction. Proxibid facilitates the direct email exchange between the Buyer and Seller to resolve the dispute. If the Buyer does not resolve the dispute with the Seller, they may be blocked from participating in future auctions on the Proxibid Platform. While Proxibid will not be directly involved in negotiating or providing terms for the resolution, it may monitor the communication between the Buyer and Seller to ensure a resolution.

If you are a Buyer, disputes should be directed and made to the Seller for resolution. Buyers may file a dispute notice regarding a Seller with Proxibid's Customer Experience team. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that any dispute notice filed with Proxibid will not affect the dispute between the Buyer and Seller, but Proxibid may use the dispute for its internal purposes.

Respond to Proxibid's Requests for Information in a Timely Manner - During the dispute process, Proxibid may require Users to provide documentation to support their position. Users may be asked to provide receipts, third-party evaluations, police reports, or any other information or documentation that Proxibid specifies.

Dispute Resolution - Proxibid may make a decision on a dispute within 3-5 business days from the day the dispute is opened, however, the decision may take up to ten (10) business days.

6.4. Assumption of Rights. If Proxibid pays out a claim, reversal, or chargeback that you file against a recipient of your payment, you agree that Proxibid assumes your rights against the recipient and third parties related to the payment, and may pursue those rights directly or on your behalf, at Proxibid's discretion.

6.5. Release of Proxibid. If you have a dispute with one or more Users, you release Proxibid (and our officers, directors, agents, joint ventures, and employees) from any and all claims, demands, and damages (actual and consequential) of every kind and nature arising out of or in any way connected with such disputes.

7. Information Collected by Proxibid

9. Relationship Between Proxibid and Sellers

Proxibid has no affiliation with or control over the Sellers or their operation of the actual events. Proxibid provides a service to Sellers and Buyers by facilitating the connection between the Seller and the Buyer. Proxibid is not responsible for the content of any Seller's postings and (i) does not review or evaluate the quality or origins of the items sold or verify the claims made by each Seller regarding its items, and (ii) does not guarantee the accuracy of any of the postings or content on the website. No User has a claim against Proxibid for relying on these postings or content.

Proxibid has the right to monitor the Sellers' postings but is under no obligation to do so. In such an event, Seller will be charged the then-current rate for such additional services.

9.2. Real Estate Auctions. The role of Proxibid in the sale of real property is limited to providing a vehicle for interested potential purchasers to utilize when they desire to bid at real estate auctions. Proxibid does not broker, sell, purchase, exchange, or lease real or personal property. No brokerage relationship or sales relationship of any kind is created between Proxibid and any seller or buyer of real estate. Proxibid merely provides a conduit through which a prospective buyer can participate in a real estate auction without physically being present.

9.3. MarketGuard®. MarketGuard® is Proxibid's proprietary risk-assessment software that relies on third-party partners, as well as a Buyer's history with the Proxibid's platform, to determine a Buyer's "eligibility". Proxibid may limit eligibility for certain events to Buyers that meet certain criteria.

Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Buyer may be identified in Proxibid records by the Buyer's MarketGuard® results. Buyer further agrees that each time Buyer attempts to participate in a Seller's event, Buyer may be granted or denied access to such event based on Buyer's MarketGuard® result s.

Any breach of this Agreement by Buyer may negatively impact Buyer's MarketGuard™ results.

The United States government and many other countries forbid or restrict transactions with parties (i.e., individuals, entities, countries, governmental regimes) identified as engaging in terrorism, narcotics trafficking, weapons proliferation, and other activities that threaten those countries' national security, foreign policies or economies (Banned Parties). Banned Parties include, but are not necessarily limited to, the parties listed on the sanctions lists maintained by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Asset Control (OFAC).

Sellers who ship internationally and those who sell items manufactured outside of the United States should regularly review current information regarding Banned Parties on the OFAC website. Proxibid does not do business with or otherwise engage in or facilitate transactions involving Banned Parties. You may not use Proxibid's products or services to facilitate transactions with Banned Parties, including shipping to, selling to, or buying from any Banned Parties.

Proxibid also does not engage in business with or facilitate transactions involving parties from countries on the OFAC lists, as well as those that Proxibid considers high risk. Proxibid does not engage in business with or facilitate transactions with individuals or entities from the following countries:

Albania	Kosovo	Sudan

11.5. Export and Import Controls

To buy or sell through Proxibid, you must comply with all applicable laws, including trade control laws of the United States and other jurisdictions. These laws include but are not limited to, requirements for import and export licenses, import certificates, customs declarations, registrations as importers, exporters, and brokers, and advance transaction approval, depending on the item at issue and the location of the Seller and Buyer.

Sellers, particularly those who ship internationally, and non-U.S. person Buyers, wherever located, should regularly review current information regarding restrictions applicable to their ability to bid on, purchase, receive, transfer, or possess the items being offered for sale.

Sellers are reminded that Proxibid listing policies prohibit offering international shipments for firearms, even where and when those exports might be legally permissible under the U.S. Export Administration Regulations. (See 4.3(e) and 4.9.)

Sellers have the discretion to limit bidders for entire auctions or select lots to U.S. persons only, or to specify applicable import, export, or other transfer restrictions applicable to an entire auction or individual lot. Because Proxibid does not control what is offered for sale on its website, Proxibid is not responsible for notifying Sellers or Buyers as to the export or import status of any item advertised on its website or as to the licenses, permits, or other requirements that might attend a sale to a foreign bidder or by a foreign Seller.

Non-compliance with import and export laws and regulations can result in civil monetary penalties and/or criminal monetary penalties and imprisonment, as well as the loss of export and import privileges.
